

ners of their families—meaning families are increasingly relying on women's wages to make ends meet. Equal pay is essential to ensuring women and families' long-term economic security.

Between 2014 and 2016, the executive branch took critical action to provide new tools to fight the pay gap. Because of these actions, federal contractors are now prohibited from retaliating against employees who dis-

---

---